

MOVING UP TO SECONDARY SCHOOL IN SEPTEMBER 2018

THE SELECTION PROCESS

- More information at <https://services.buckscc.gov.uk/school-admissions/schools>

The Secondary Transfer Test

- The Secondary Transfer Test is a test to determine whether or not a child is suited to a grammar school.
- The 2018 entry test is produced by CEM (Centre for Evaluation and Monitoring) which is part of the University of Durham
- Buckinghamshire County Council undertake the administration on behalf of the 13 grammar schools

What does the Secondary Transfer Test measure?

Verbal ability	includes comprehension and vocabulary
Numerical ability	includes problem solving and multi-stage items
Non-verbal ability	includes diagrammatic reasoning

Verbal question example

Select the word that means the opposite to the word on the left

leisurely	messily	funnily	bleakly	hurriedly	angrily

Maths question example

A bakery needs to order 460kg of flour. The flour is only sold in 9kg sacks. How many sacks will the bakery need to order?

40	45	50	51	52

Shade the answer on your answer sheet.

Non-verbal question example

Look at the picture on the left then pick one picture on the right that best answers the question

Does my child have to sit the Secondary Transfer Test?

No, only if you want them to attend a grammar school

Will a grammar school suit my child?

Discuss this with your child's headteacher

Coaching

- Primary schools that undertake testing on behalf of the grammar schools are asked not to tutor or coach the children in their school prior to the test over and above enabling the children to follow the national curriculum relevant for their age.

Coaching materials

- Although there are products on the market claiming to provide practice for CEM tests, there are no commercially available practice papers, materials or services written by CEM (the test provider).
- CEM does not recommend that parents purchase or subscribe to any commercially available materials.
- The Secondary Transfer Test is designed to enable all children to demonstrate their academic potential without the need for excessive preparation. Tutoring is therefore not required or recommended.

What can I do if my child does not qualify?

You can either

The procedure is explained in the results letter in October

The Selection Review Panel can decide a child is qualified and once agreed this qualification is for any grammar school

Selection Review Panel

- Selection Review Panel sits Nov-Jan
- 3 headteachers - two grammar one primary
- Decision included in 1 March allocation
- Decision applies to all grammar schools
- Can still Appeal later when IAP will consider whether review process was 'fair, consistent and objective'

Non-qualified Appeal

- Possible to go straight to appeal
- Appeal heard after 1 March
- Most schools will already be full by then
- You would have to prove academic potential
AND give reasons why you believe a place should be offered above number

Whether a qualified child will be offered a grammar school place depends on:

- Preference order
- Grammar school admission rules
- A place being available

Making an application

You will be able to:

- List up to 6 schools, including grammar, upper / all-ability and out of county schools
- Put the schools in the order you prefer them
- Give reasons why you have listed these schools

Do your homework!

- Does your child need to sit or pass a test to be considered for a place at the school?
- Do you have priority of admission?
- Do you need to complete a supplementary form?
- Do you live in-catchment? (Check this on the website)
- How will your child get to school?

School Transport

Transport given to the nearest secondary school if:

- Over three miles away, or
- Under three miles but the route is an 'unsafe walking route'
- Check on www.buckscc.gov.uk/findaschoolplace which school is the nearest school to you
- All secondary schools are treated equally (grammar/upper/comprehensive/free)
- Paid-for bus tickets can be purchased

The offer process – Step 1

- Local authorities share offer information
- Each school preference is treated separately
- The schools are not told where they are placed on the preference list by the parent
- All admission authorities apply their admission rules to all the children with the school as a preference and sort the children into 'ranked order'
- The schools tell the ranked order to their council

The offer process – Step 2

- Where more than one offer can be made to the same child the higher preference place is offered
- The lower preference place is declined
- The lower preference place is offered to another child
- Children who cannot be offered any of their preferences are then offered a place at the nearest school with vacant places remaining

Important notes

- Only qualified children are offered grammar school places
- Think carefully about the order you put the preferences in
- Try to include a local school that you have a good chance of being offered a place at
- Look at the transport rules
